ABOUT

NYC-based singer/songwriter Saniyé just released her second full-length album 'Let's Play' via 6/8 Records. The album was produced by Mikal Blue (Colbie Caillat, OneRepublic, Jason Mraz) and features multi-platinum, chart-topping R&B artist Eamon on the track 'Forever And Ever'. Drawing from a dynamic mix of bold female influences (Lily Allen, Nelly Furtado, Ingrid Michaelson, Ella Fitzgerald), this album is an homage to finding one's inner child. The result is a musical odyssey rife of sexy jazz-kissed retro pop coupled with insinuating melodies and clever confluences featuring her "undeniably sweet" (Village Voice) vocals. 'Let's Play' is currently spinning on 70+ college and non-comm radio stations nationwide!

The press has fallen in love with Saniyé - she's been featured on television on Fuse-TV and Music Mix USA, and in such notable media outlets as Los Angeles Times, Time Out New York, LA Examiner, Global Rhythm magazine, Highlight Magazine and others. She's also a big hit in her family's homeland of Turkey where she's been featured on every major news outlet from CNN to MTV. Earlier this year, Saniyé's had an impressive run on Fox TV's "New York Star of the Day with Ernie Anastos." She landed the "Star of the Day" Award and became a finalist on the show.
